Accessibility

This section shows accessibility issues, indicating problems for older users, people with disabilities or accessibility needs. Automated testing cannot detect all accessibility issues, so should be used alongside human testing.

Level A

3 issues on 5 pages

- An image with a null `alt` attribute should not have `title`, `aria-label` or `aria-labelledby` attributes.

If the image should be voiced use a descriptive `alt` attribute. If the image is purely decorative remove any `title` and ARIA label attributes.

- JAWS : Ignores all images with `alt=""`.
- NVDA : Reads some images with `alt=""` and a title or ARIA label.
- VoiceOver : Reads images with `alt=""` and a title or ARIA label.

- Inserting spaces between letters in a word means screen readers cannot pronounce the words correctly.

Remove spaces between letters in the same word (e.g. `hello` instead of `h e l l o`).

- This page has words made of Unicode characters that look like English characters but are from another alphabet. This means screen readers are unable to pronounce these words correctly.

Replace the characters with their English characters equivalents, or if the text is not English, add a `lang` attribute to the enclosing element.

- Avoid specifying a new window as the target of a link with `target=_blank`.

Displaying new windows without warning can be very confusing to non-sighted and mobile users. Some screen readers and mobile devices give very little indication a new tab or window has opened. If you cannot avoid displaying a new window, insert an "opens in a new window" warning into the link text or add the warning to the link using a `title` attribute or `aria-describedby` attribute.
